

LOCAL CHILDREN BENEFIT FROM NEW YORK LIFE'S GLOBAL MONTH OF SERVICE VOLUNTEER INITIATIVE

Local Effort is Part of 50,000 Volunteer Hours Provided World-wide

AUSTIN, TX - Employees from New York Life Insurance Company's Long-Term Care office in Austin recently participated in the company's first Global Month of Service by partnering with LifeWorks, a local nonprofit organization which provides a continuum of service to youth and families in need. Pictured are New York Life employees refurbishing Life Works' Transitional Living Shelter.

New York Life's Global Month of Service recorded over 3,500 volunteers who contributed 50,000 volunteer hours worldwide in over 200 projects for a very successful month of volunteering and service.
