¹ Tax qualified retirement plans (Traditional IRAs, TSAs, SEPs and SIMPLE IRAs) already provide tax deferral under the Internal Revenue Code, so the tax deferral of an annuity does not provide any additional benefit.

² Interest rates are effective annual yields.

³ Withdrawals may be subject to regular income tax and, if made prior to age 59½, may be subject to a 10% IRS penalty. Surrender charges may also apply.

Withdrawals³ (Cont.)

- Surrender-Charge-Free Window for policies with a premium amount less than $100,000: Each policy year, you may withdraw the highest of 15% of the policy's cash value as of the previous anniversary, 15% of the current cash value, or the Gain Window, less any surrender-charge-free withdrawals made during the policy year, without a surrender charge. The Gain Window equals the current cash value less your premium payment.
- Surrender-Charge-Free Window for policies with a premium amount of $100,000 or more: Each policy year, you may withdraw the highest of 20% of the policy's cash value as of the previous anniversary, 20% of the current cash value, or the Gain Window, less any surrender-charge-free withdrawals made during the policy year, without a surrender charge. The 20% surrender-charge-free window is not available in New York.
- Withdrawals that exceed the free window withdrawal amount are subject to a surrender charge during the first seven policy years based on the following schedule:

Years	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
% of Payment	7	7	7	6	5	4	3

Premium Guarantee
