

Accident & Health Insurance: Why Choose New York Life Participant Accident Insurance for Camps?

New York Life provides accident solutions to help safeguard the well-being of campers, both on and off the campground. By addressing the inherent risks of injuries that may occur during various activities, this insurance highlights a facility's dedication to camp safety. Our coverage offers valuable benefits for registered campers, staff and other participants of a camp program. It provides insurance protection during sponsored activities or events, as well as while traveling to and from these activities. With this coverage, facilities can offer added financial security to families and staff.

Key Benefits

Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D):

Pays a lump sum benefit if an accident results in a loss of life, limb, sight, speech, or hearing
