We Support Programs and Resources for Bereaved Children and Families

Since 2008, childhood bereavement support has been a philanthropic priority for the Foundation. In 2022, 1 in 13 U.S. children experienced the death of a parent or sibling before the age of 18, an increase from 2021 which included the first year of COVID-related deaths. We continued to address the growing need for increased resources for bereaved youth and their families through dedicated initiatives and partnerships.

We Help Middle School Students Thrive in School and in Life

We supported our education partners to enhance their out-of-school time programs to provide more academic and social and emotional learning resources for middle school youth. Out-of-school time programs—afterschool and summer learning programs—are essential to help children and families continue to navigate the on-going and varied challenges in the wake of the pandemic.

Workforce Engagement

- $9,116,117

Volunteer & Acts of Kindness Grants $2,067,784
Matching Gifts $3,512,348
Other Workforce-Driven Grants $3,535,985

The New York Life workforce continued to give back to our communities when they needed it most. Our employees and agents donated to thousands of nonprofits across the country at record breaking levels, and they supported our communities in over 2,209 volunteer activities and Acts of Kindness totaling 136,165 volunteer hours.

Social Justice

- $3,720,200

Social Justice Added as Foundation Focus Area

In 2022, the New York Life Foundation added social justice as a formal, third strategic focus area. Funding themes include:

- Helping to narrow the generational wealth gap for BIPOC communities
- Uncovering and learning from our history
- Supporting childhood bereavement and education organizations with a social justice and racial equity focus
- Supporting leadership development and capacity building in the nonprofit sector
- Continuing to provide general operating support for social justice organizations
