

Transfer of Ownership

Once you make a transfer of ownership, all ownership rights in the policy pass to the Owner(s) designated in Section A, B, or C (the "New Owner(s)") permanently. Subsequent transfers of ownership can be made without your knowledge, and therefore, you may not know who owns the policy on the life of the Insured/Annuitant. Beneficiary changes can also be made without your knowledge, so you may not know the identity of the beneficiary designated to receive the death benefit of your policy. These factors are particularly significant when transferring the ownership of your policy for cash or other valuable consideration to an unrelated third party, such as in a viatical or life settlement. There may be alternatives available in your policy without the necessity of a Transfer of Ownership. Contact your Agent/ Registered Representatives or one of our Customer Service Professionals to discuss possible alternatives. You should consult your tax advisor before any transfer of ownership. The word "policy" refers to policies and contracts issued by New York Life Insurance Company, New York Life Insurance and Annuity Corporation, and NYLIFE Insurance Company of Arizona.

Complete all required fields and initial any corrections that you make. If you do not, we may not be able to act upon your request.

STEP 1 POLICY INFORMATION. Tell us your policy information. You can change more than one policy as long as the policy owner is the same and you are requesting the same changes for each policy.

Insured/Annuitant's Name

Is this Transfer of Ownership a reportable policy sale of a life insurance contract? Yes No
 A "reportable policy sale" means the acquisition of an interest in a life insurance contract, directly or indirectly, if the acquirer has no substantial family, business, or financial relationship with the Insured apart from the acquirer's interest in such life insurance contract.

USA PATRIOT ACT: Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who becomes the owner of an existing account. What this means for you: When you change policy/account ownership, we will ask for name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify the New Owner(s).

STEP 2 NEW OWNER INFORMATION. (If multiple owners are named, all will need to sign for any subsequent changes or requests.)

Please check here if you are naming another owner and retaining the current owner.

- A TO NAME AN INDIVIDUAL(S)
- If the New Owner is a non-US citizen, a completed W-8 or W-9 form is required.
 - If the New Owner is a Resident Alien, please send a copy of your Green Card.
 - If the New Owner is a minor, a legal guardian must be named, or, a Uniform Transfer to Minor Act (UTMA) or Uniform Gifts to Minor Act (UGMA) designation must be used as follows: "(insert name of the custodian) as Custodian for (insert name of minor and relationship to Insured/Annuitant) under the (insert the state in which the minor lives) Uniform Transfer (or Gifts) to Minors Act."
 - When two natural persons are named, rights of ownership will pass jointly to the survivor, unless otherwise specified. Where rights are not to pass jointly to the survivor(s) the names and relationships should be followed by the words "jointly in common."
 - Please note: The New Owner, if not the Insured/Annuitant, should consider naming a Successor Owner (Owner's Designee). Please complete Section B on the following page if you would like to do so (Not all annuity contracts allow for a successor owner).

B TO NAME A SUCCESSOR OWNER/ OWNER DESIGNEE

SELECTING A SUCCESSOR OWNER IS IMPORTANT. The New Owner, if other than Insured/Annuitant, should consider naming a Successor Owner (Owner's Designee). A Successor Owner will become owner of the policy if the New Owner pre-deceases the Insured/Annuitant(s). If you do not choose a Successor Owner, and the owner pre-deceases the Insured/Annuitant(s), ownership will default to the owner's estate which may require a probate court process to appoint a new owner.

If the New Owner is a minor, a legal guardian must be named, or, a Uniform Transfer to Minor Act (UTMA) or Uniform Gifts to Minor Act (UGMA) designation must be used as follows: "(insert name of the custodian) as Custodian for (insert name of minor and relationship to Insured/Annuitant) under the (insert the state in which the minor lives) Uniform Transfer (or Gifts) to Minors Act."

Note: Not all annuity contracts allow for a successor owner. Please contact a customer service professional if you have an annuity.

STEP 4B INVESTOR PROFILE INFORMATION. (Registered Products only)

Investment Objective (please select one).

- A. Income with Capital Preservation For the investor who seeks investment stability and liquidity with a primary portfolio objective to preserve capital while providing income. Fluctuations in the values of portfolios of this type are usually minimal. This investment may represent any Risk Tolerance. No portion of the investment may be allocated to funds or investment divisions classified as high and/or highest risk if the investor has a Conservative Risk Tolerance. No more than 20% of the investment may be allocated to funds or investment divisions classified as high and/or highest risk for all other investors.
- B. Income with Moderate Growth For the investor who seeks current income and modest long-term growth, with a slightly higher risk tolerance than the investor in the capital preservation category. Primary portfolio objective is current income. Fluctuations in the values of portfolios of this type may occur from year to year. This investment may represent any Risk Tolerance, other than Conservative. No more than 30% of the investment may be allocated to funds or investment divisions classified as high and/or highest risk if the investor has a Moderately Conservative Risk Tolerance. No more than 40% of the investment may be allotted to funds or investment divisions classified as high and/or highest risk for all other investors.
- C. Growth with Income For the investor who seeks relatively stable long-term growth with a low level of income and has a moderate risk tolerance. Primary portfolio objective is to achieve steady long-term growth. Fluctuations in the values of portfolios of this type are usually less than those of the overall stock markets. This investment may represent a Moderate, Moderately Aggressive, or Aggressive Risk Tolerance. No more than 50% of the investment may be allocated to funds or investment divisions classified as high and/or highest risk if the investor has a Moderate Risk Tolerance. No more than 60% of the investment may be allocated to funds or investments divisions classified as high and/or highest risk for all other investors.
- D. Growth For the investor who seeks capital appreciation. Primary portfolio objective is above average capital appreciation. Fluctuations in the values of portfolios of this type are usually the same as those of the overall stock markets. This investment may represent a Moderately Aggressive or Aggressive Risk tolerance. No more than 80% of the investment may be allocated to funds or investment divisions classified as high and/or highest risk.
- E. Aggressive Growth For the investor who seeks maximum capital appreciation. Primary portfolio objective is aggressive capital appreciation. Fluctuations in the values of portfolios of this type are substantial from year to year and are more than in the overall stock markets. This investment may represent an Aggressive Risk Tolerance only. Up to 100% of the investment can be allocated to funds or investment divisions classified as high and/or highest risk.

STEP 5 TRUSTED CONTACT PERSON. This section to be completed by the NEW OWNER(S).

Designating a trusted contact is not required and does not authorize the named individual to transact on or make changes to the owner's account, but it does authorize New York Life to contact the person you identify and communicate with them regarding the account.

By providing the information in this section, I/We authorize NYLIFE Securities and its affiliates (collectively "New York Life") to contact the person listed below and to disclose information about me in the following circumstances: to address possible financial exploitation, to confirm the specifics of my current contact information, health status, and the identity of any legal guardian, executor, trustee or holder of a power of attorney as otherwise permitted by federal or state law. This authorization may become null and void if New York Life receives legal documents appointing an alternative third party (e.g. guardian/conservator) to manage my/our financial affairs. I/We understand that I/We may at any time submit a request in writing that New York Life remove or change the Trusted Contact Person. I/We confirm that the Trusted Contact Person is over age 18.

STEP 6 READ AND SIGN.

CURRENT OWNER OR PERSON WITH RIGHT TO TRANSFER OWNERSHIP:

I, the Person(s) With Right to Transfer Ownership, understand and agree that:

- All rights of ownership in the above numbered contract(s) are to be transferred to the New Owner(s) indicated above.
- When acknowledgement is sent by New York Life (NYL), this Transfer of Ownership will take effect as of the date stated in the policy being transferred, subject to any payment made or other action taken by NYL before recording the change or, if endorsement of a contract is required by NYL, before that endorsement has been made by NYL.
- The Contract(s) will be held as separate property by the New Owner(s).
- Where the Current Owner is a corporation, the form must be signed on behalf of the corporation by two disinterested Corporate Officers (President, Secretary, Treasurer), other than the Insured/Annuitant with their titles. New York Life may require a copy of the corporate board minutes which authorize the transfer of ownership.
- For corporations, if signing as sole proprietor, designation must follow signature.
- Where the Current Owner is a partnership, the form must be signed by two partners, with their titles as partners, other than the Insured/ Annuitant. In the case of a limited partnership, only the signature of a general partner, with the title of general partner, is required. A copy of the partnership agreement must be attached.
- Where the Current Owner is a trust, provide the signatures of all required trustees.
- When a Transfer of Ownership is being signed by a person acting as a trustee, guardian or in similar capacity, their designation must follow their signature. For example: The designation trustee must follow the trustee's signature.

Guardianship/ Conservatorship: Signature of the current guardian is required. Evidence of that person's authority to change ownership must accompany the request in forms of Guardianship Papers or Letter of Conservatorship and/or court order allowing transfer.

Your signature is required on the next page ►

Transfer of Ownership

STEP 6 READ AND SIGN (continued from previous page).

NEW OWNER'S SIGNATURE(S):

I/We, the New Owner(s) certify, understand and agree:

- The provisions relating to Ownership and Transfer of Ownership of this form are made a part of the ownership designation and part of the above numbered policy(s).
- All policy terms and conditions apply to the New Owner(s).
- I/We acknowledge receiving a copy of all agreements related to the variable policy/life insurance.
- I/We received a copy of NYL's privacy policy.
- I/We also understand and agree with the selection made to the Elective Options of Prior Owner section.
- The Beneficiary Designation will continue as is on all policies transferred unless the beneficiary has been updated in one of the methods as outlined in Step 3 of this form.
- Where the New Owner is a corporation, the form must be signed on behalf of the corporation by two disinterested Corporate Officers (President, Secretary, Treasurer), other than the Insured/Annuitant with their titles. New York Life may require a copy of the corporate board minutes which authorize the transfer of ownership.
- For corporations, if signing as sole proprietor, designation must follow signature.
- Where the New Owner is a partnership, the form must be signed by two partners, with their titles as partners, other than the Insured/Annuitant. In the case of a limited partnership, only the signature of a general partner, with the title of general partner, is required. A copy of the partnership agreement must be attached.
- Where the New Owner is a trust, provide the signatures of all required trustees.
- When a Transfer of Ownership is being signed by a person acting as a trustee, guardian or in similar capacity, their designation must follow their signature. For example: The designation trustee must follow the trustee's signature.

Taxpayer Backup Withholding Certifications:

IMPORTANT - The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and New York Life REQUIRE that the New Owner complete the following:

Under penalties of perjury, I (as owner named) certify:

- (1) My Social Security Number or Tax ID shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number,
- (2) I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding; or (b) I have not been notified by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividend income; or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding,
- (3) I am a U.S. person (includes a U.S. resident alien), and
- (4) The (FATCA) code entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct. (Please note: if being submitted for a U.S. account, this last certification (4) does not apply.)

Check this box if the IRS has notified you that you are subject to backup withholding.

If you are a U.S. entity, you must submit a completed IRS Form W-9. If you are not a U.S. citizen, U.S. resident alien or other U.S. person, you must submit the applicable Form W-8 with this form to certify your foreign status and, if applicable, claim treaty benefits. If you are not a U.S. person, your signature below only applies to the provisions of this document other than the provisions contained in this Owner Tax Certification section.

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
